

PRESS RELEASE

#NOTARIESOPENDAY: ON 25 OCTOBER, LESSONS IN LEGALITY FROM NOTARIES FOR 15,000 ITALIAN STUDENTS

To mark the European Day of Civil Justice

87 cities also host the active provision of free basic information about homes, family and businesses

Rome, 17 October 2016 - Lessons on legality from notaries to 15,000 students in over 260 schools across Italy and advice to citizens in 87 cities: these initiatives are scheduled for next Tuesday 25 October during the Open Day of European Notaries organised in 16 EU countries* to celebrate the "European Day of Civil Justice" established in 2003 by the European Commission and the Council of Europe. The Italian Notariat has decided to join the project with specific initiatives for students and citizens.

SCHOOLS PROJECT: On the morning of 25 October there will be meetings with 15,000 students in over 260 primary and secondary schools of first and second levels throughout Italy to explain the concept of legality and civil justice and the role of the notary in the Italian and European context.

ADVICE TO CITIZENS: On the afternoon of 25 October notaries will meet with citizens in 87 cities to provide initial guidance on: buying a home, mortgages, companies, donations, wills and succession.
